Spinsters' Club Adopted Unique A Virtual Prisoner, He Declares, Under Rules to Insure Single Happiness.

LONDON, Jan. 18.-There is a Spinsters' League in Bristol. It owes its existence to a visit which the secretary paid to a midland town, where she found such a league flourishing.

When she returned to Bristol a meeting was held, at which those present became convinced that spinsterhood is the road to happiness.

Rules Adopted.

The following rules were adopted: "1. All members must have attained the age of seventeen and not exceeded thirty; must wear long skirts and dress their hair in a becoming manner. Members are invited to render their appearance as attractive as possible, but to be maidenly in their conduct.

"2. Members are compelled by the law of the society (a) to be entirely proof against any charms(?) of man; (b) to have a wholesome contempt of falling in love, and to abhor marriage for themselves.

Urges Proselyting.

"3. Members are also compelled to introduce the society and the advan-tages thereor to all whom they suppose may fall victims to the delusions re ferred to in clause 2.

"4. Every member must be in a posi "4. Every member must be in a posi-tion to maintain the rights of the society, viz., healthy, strong-minded, and able to earn her own living, so that there shall be no necessity for members to embrace marriage as a means of subsistence."

The secretary mournfully admits that converts are not being made very rap-idly.

PECKHAM'S FAT BOY MUST ATTEND SCHOOL

LONDON, Jan. 18 .- Johnny Trundley, the Peckham fat boy, is in despair. The London county council has decreed that he must take his place at a specially built desk and learn his ns with other children of his own age-which is just six years. But Johnny does not wish to do this. For a year he has known all the joys of the footlights. He has been petted by adoring audiences from the south of England to the north of Scotland.

The desk at which he must sit is a very comfortable one of the portable very comfortable one of the portable or folding type. It occupies about five times as much space as that allotted to the ordinary child, and is covered with black American cloth.

"I am thirteen stone now," declares Johnny, "and I hope I shall get ever so much fatter. I want to get so fat," and Johnny looked around at his mother for approbation, "that I can't get into the room."

Celibacy Association Not Son Has Not Communicated With Her for Years

the Custody of a Man and His Wife.

PARIS. Jan. 18.-Inquiries recently made by several of the Paris journals go to show that for the last four years a wealthy woman of Scottish origin, described as the Comtesse de Gallway, and possessed of great wealth, has been living in the Hotel de Louvre here under the vigilant guardianship of two persons called M. and Mme. de Pully.

A Virtual Prisoner.

According to the Comte Patrice de Gallway, who lives at 46, Rue Damre mont, Paris, the son of the woman, she is a virtual prisoner, and he fears that unlawful pressure is being brought to bear upon her by her guardians.

The comte declares that for four years he has neither seen nor had any communication with his mother, and he has asked the public prosecutor to open an inquiry into the affair.

"My mother's personal fortune is very large," says the comte in his letter to this funtcionary, "and in addition the heritage which came to her from my grandfather amounts to more than $1,200,000." is a virtual prisoner, and he fears that

Victim of Paralysis.

It is stated by the "Journal" that the comtesse was stricken with paralysis two years ago, and is now unable to two years ago, and is now unable to leave her room. Two nurses are in attendance on her day and night, and adopt various means of entertaining her, including cinematograph exhibitions on a screen fixed in the room.

There is nothing to show that the Gallway family is connected with the noble Scottish house of Galloway. Comte Patrice de Gallway states that the extensive domains of his family are situated in the Department of Eure.

REDUCTION OF TARIFF

If the proposed tariff reduction on wheat and wheat flour goes into effect in Spain, a good opportunity will be presented to American exporters of those articles to do a good business in the Spanish markets.

Spanish markets.

At the present time the duty on wheat is $1.15 per 229 pounds, and $1.93 on wheat flour. Under the proposed bill, which is expected to become a law at any time, the duty-on wheat would be reduced to 77 cents per 229 pounds, and on flour to $1.35 per 229 pounds.

The exportation of wheat and wheat flour from this country to Spain has not been very great in the last few years, and one drawback has been this high duty. The annual exportation of wheat amounts to about 409,000 bushels, and wheat flour about 5,000 bushels, and wheat flour about $50,000 a year.
